

7 WINS, 2 LOSSES, ONE TIE: THAT'S VOL'S' RECORD

The University of Tennessee Junior College football team ended its 1935 season Thursday with seven wins, two losses, and one tie game. During the season they scored 190 points to their opponents' 25.

The final game was with Tupelo Junior College in Mississippi. Tupelo won, 6-0, after a hard battle.

The Junior Vols led the Mississippi Valley Conference during the first three-fourths of the season, until Northwest Junior College at Senatobia, Miss., November 8.

The Junior Vols' victories included Arkansas College, 21-0; Delta State, 25-0; Arkansas State, 25-0; Hiwassee, 35-0; Lambuth 21-6; Southwestern Frosh, 25-0; and Murray Frosh 38-6. Defeats included Northwestern Junior College, 7-0; Tupelo, 6-0. The team had a scoreless tie with Bethel.

SPORT LIGHTS

By Crawford Aden

The football togs are being put away for the year and in their place, the basketball shorts are rapidly coming out from their hiding places to take their place on the hardwood. Every year basketball gains in its following and the basketball heads are all set for a banner year as the present season is preparing to make its debut.

The University of Tennessee Junior College is indeed fortunate in being Unknown to the student body of U. T. Junior College as a whole, it is perhaps news that the Junior Vols have been sought after for a post season affair with the Junior Louisiana State University of Monroe, Louisiana, on the visitors' home grounds or in the city of Baton Rouge. Plans failed to materialize, but it is interesting to note the development of Junior College football and the development of the prestige U. T. Junior squad and the school for the Vols to have gone on the gridiron and given a poor showing with everyone knowing the caliber of team the Vols possess.

Funny as it may seem, with the football season just over and the basketball season on the verge of opening,

Coach H. K. Grantham has his basketball charges all primed for the opening games with the CCC boys from Dyer, Tennessee, Tuesday night. The Vols are an unknown quantity this year, and what they can do remains to be seen, although the Vols offense is expected to hinge around Captain Shankle and Houston, Decaturville Freshman, in the early season games. A regular starting five is not expected to be picked until after Eighteen varsity men played their last game for U. T. Junior on Thanksgiving and left a high mark for coming teams to shoot at in the percentage column. Every man that graduates will be sorely missed, but Coach Derryberry has excellent prospects for another winning combination next fall if he is able to strengthen a member of the Mississippi Valley Conference, recognized as one of the fastest basketball loops in the country. Every basketball fan in this vicinity will have an opportunity to witness some of the best teams in his section perform on the local court against the Junior Vols. Attendance has not been up to expectations in the last few years, but it is hoped that a winning Vol team will fill the tiers to capacity this winter.

is gaining in the sport field.

It is perhaps for the best that the Vols were unable to accept as the entire football squad is worn out after one of the hardest schedules in the history of the school.

Every man would have done his best, but it is a well known fact that the Vols passed their peak soon after the Southwestern Bobcat game, and it would have been to the discredit ing, some talk is going around about a baseball team for the coming summer. It has been a good while since the University went in for baseball, but it seems now as if there is going to be some demand for the sport when the March winds cease to roar next spring.

ter the Christmas holidays and by that time Coach Grantham will have a pretty good idea of what every man can do.

Plans are under way to attempt to secure the University of Tennessee basketballers for the night of December 18, but nothing definite has been heard to date. If these plans should materialize, it would be one of the greatest athletic events of they year.

then the center and tackle posts and build up the reserve strength from incoming Freshmen. A fine backfield combination is in the making, with Fernstrom, E. Vaughn, Ellis, Hall, Robinson and a flock of others returning to take care of the rear ranks.

Cross-Country Run Scheduled December 9

One of the features of U. T. Junior athletic year will take place on the afternoon of December 9, when the famous cross-country run will take place over the hills and gulleys surrounding Martin. A three mile course will be laid out and to the class that has its representative finish first will receive 5 points in the intramural standing and the one finishing second will get 3. All those finishing within the time of 25 minutes will get 2 points. There are several boys in training for the run and heated competition is promised.

TWO INTRAMURAL GAMES THIS WEEK

Intramural sports will continue to hold a major part in U. T. Junior College life when the Frosh and the Sophs will once more tie up in battle in the gym. This time the sport is soccer and promises to be another close struggle. The boys are scheduled to go on the floor at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, and the girls will parade on the hardwood at 4 o'clock Wednesday.

Frosh Boys, Soph Girls Take Intra-Mural Contests

Before the largest crowd of the intramural season, the Sophomores went down to defeat before the fighting Freshman by a 7-6 score in one of the most exciting tag football games in intramural history of the school. The Frosh talked early in the second quarter on a pass from Neese to Richmond, and Richmond place-kicked the extra point, which proved to be the deciding point.

The second year men came back strong in the fourth quarter to score on a long pass from Looney to Huffstutter, which caught the Freshmen flat-footed. The try from placement was blocked.

Vice, Richmond and Neese starred for the Frosh, while Looney and Huffstutter upheld the honor of the Sophs.

Lineup:
Frosh (7) Sophs (6)
Vice L.E. White
James L.T. Tice
Calhoun L.G. Vineyard
Howell C. J. Sammons
Dunnivant R.G. McCain
Mitchell R.T. A. Sammons
Miller R.E. Shankle
Logan Q.B. Looney
Fisher L.H. Huffstutter
Long R.H. Hughey
Moffot F.B. Hannings

In a fast, hard-fought, closely-contested game that featured some rough and tumble playing by both sides, the Sophomore girls took the Freshmen girls into camp by a 4-3 score in an interesting hockey contest last week.

The score changed hands throughout the contest, and the result was in doubt until the closing moments of play when Ernesine Diggs, Sophomore forward, scored the winning point.

Diggs was the outstanding player on the court, scoring all the Upper Classmen points and playing all over the court on defense. Littrell and Biggs also played good games for the Sophs, and Thompson, Stover, and Moore starred for the Frosh.

The lineup:
Frosh (3) Sophs (4)
McGehee Diggs
Barksdale L.E. Pritchett
Thompson R.F. Derryberry
Wickford L.F. Davis
Hall (c) C. Barton (c)
Johnson R.H. Littrell
Neely L.H. Harliss
Walpole R.F. Fowler
Crockett L.F. Sparks

THREE CAGE TILTS CARDED

With three definite pre-season games scheduled and three more in the process of negotiation, the Junior Vol basketball team is going through frequent workouts in preparation for an active season.

Games definitely carded are:
December 3—Dyer CCC (here).
December 5—Alumni (here).
December 12—Olson's Terrible Swedes (Greenfield).

Three other games, two with Paducah Junior College and the other with the Big U. T. varsity, are indefinite.

Former students who have been contacted for the alumni game include six who were on the 1928 championship team. They are "Red" McCorkle, Hollis Kinney, Filmore Lyon, Rufus Thompson, Lloyd Thomas, and Clycie Shankle. Other alumni likely to play include Frank Taylor, Clifton Pritchett, Dewey Woody, Conrad Lewis, Sam Moffett, Haliday Short, Hugh Basham, Snead Clift, Charles Finley, Gordon Barrett and Jack Wood.

What Alumni Are Doing!

Grads Serve Various Occupations

GEORGE HORTON

Another alumnus of The University of Tennessee Junior College who is making good is George Horton, graduate in 1928, who is an instructor in general and economic zoology, entomology, and vertebrate embryology at the University of North Carolina.

Attending the old Hall-Moody College as a freshman, Mr. Horton was a sophomore in the Junior College during its first year of existence, entering the University at Knoxville after receiving high honors in Martin. He was graduated from Tennessee with a B.S. degree in June, 1930, with a major in entomology.

During his senior year at the University, he served as student assistant in the Department of Entomology and as a part-time student assistant in the Department of Bacteriology. In September, 1930, he received an appointment to a teaching fellowship in zoology and entomology at North Carolina State College, where he received his M.S. degree in June, 1932, with an A average.

He retained his fellowship through June, 1933, and since then has held the rank of instructor, dividing his time between teaching and research.

KATIE'S KEYHOLE COLUMN

GREETINGS my good readers . . . may I suggest that the ladies do their Christmas hinting early . . . Here is the chance you have been waiting for—a second-hand glass eye that has seen the world will be awarded the person that tells me who the visiting ladies were getting 130's autograph last Saturday . . . Did you hear the Southern Colonels a tthe hop last week? Those boys gave real music and that Drummer Hughy went to town . . . Get ready for the function of the 17th . . . It's to be the best, and you all got to be on hand . . . My friend De Mess, overslept Friday night, thus failing to fill a no-break with a charming Soph. Shame on you, Ray.

It has been said that writing about faculty members is like daring a train to run over you. . . . According to G. Fowler, ignorance is bliss unless Prof. Woods is the teacher. . . . Did you see Pop going hard on that stogie on that last game. I bet that was a Robinson Crusoe grand, a "castaway". . . . According to a Freshman, a college is a place where horse sense is explained in detail. . . . He says, "Puppy love should be termed kitten love—after nine days your eyes are opened". . . . Little Annie Mae says that it is easier to agree with Doc than to explain. . . .

A Chicago University professor gives quizzes with the privilege of dis-garding the question you don't know substituting and answering others of your own origin. . . . Teachers, take the hint. . . . Speaking of school, in a clean-up campaign in a Texas university two thousand wads of gum were removed from the tables. . . . A survey in a New York school reveals "M" to be the most popular letter among the girls. It is found in mirrors, men and more mon y. . . . Reports come to us that a certain Miss Smith is giving Billy Taylor special attention at the dining hall. . . . The green cap wearers are electing officers. It is reported that a young man is running on the laundry ticket, assuring he will iron out all difficulties. . . . Below is the composition of a Sophomore's papa:

"I sent my boy to college,
I put a mortgage on the shack.
I spent a thousand dollars,
And got a quarterback."
Closing thought: Here is hoping that this finds you as happy as a fat woman who doesn't give a darn.

FARM MOVIE TO BE SHOWN DECEMBER 9

The McCormick-Deering Company, through the Industrial arts and agriculture departments, will give a moving picture on farm life December 9 at 6:30 p.m. in the main auditorium. The picture will be a talkie, full length, have a plot, love scenes, farm episodes, etc. The faculty and student body of UTJC and their friends are invited to attend this show. The admission is free.

Visitors on the Junior College campus last week were Mr. and Mrs. William Pigue of Pittsburgh, parents of Paul E. Pigue, Volette editor, and William Pigue, Jr., and wife of Nashville.

DOROTHY RAINES REPORTED BETTER

Miss Dorothy Raines, popular freshman, has been ill for the past week at her room in the girls' dormitory as a result of an appendicitis attack suffered last Monday.

Miss Raines is a member of the Volette staff and is connected with the college library.

Physicians report her condition to be improved and she will probably be able to return to her classes and work this week.

Mrs. Ozire, mother of Ann and Sam Czier, students at the Junior College, gave a party Saturday night in honor of Miss Rosemary Jerman and Miss Nance Jerman, of Alamo. Nearly a dozen University couples attended.

The Junior College Life Saving Club gave an informal dance Friday night in the college gymnasium. Forty couples attended. Due to success of the entertainment, those present agreed it should become an annual affair. Music was by the Southern Colonels Orchestra.

WORKERS LEAD

Statistics compiled last year show that students in American colleges receiving relief funds not only earned their money, but achieved generally better academic grades than their non-earning classmates. College authorities, often chary of praise, are joining just now in a chorus of commendation for students relief workers throughout the United States, says a New York newspaper.

The proof of the cigarette is in the smoking . . . and it always will be

Smokers—both men and women—want a cigarette to be mild—yet not flat or insipid. At the same time they want a cigarette that gives them taste—taste they can enjoy.

Chesterfields are outstanding for mildness—outstanding for better taste. You can find that out by smoking them.

Just try them—Chesterfields are what they say they are
